Wa Meng Yang was seeded second with 731, Tik Soukchaleun rolled 712 for third, John Barlau was seeded 4th with a 701 and Deanie Lynch managed 698 for 5th place.

The first game of the step ladder matched John Barlau and Deanie Lynch. Deanie won the match 232 – 198 and advanced to meet the third place qualifier Tik Soukchaleun.

Tik rolled a 244 to Deanie's 210 winning the match to advance to meet the 2nd place qualifier Wa Meng Yang.

Wa rolled a 243 to Tik's 235 and advanced to the championship against John Plourde.

John rolled a 212 to Wa's 197 winning the championship.

Champion Notes: John owns a metal fabricating/welding company and has a significant other Lita Thompson. John has been bowling for 10 years and currently bowls at Hudson Bowl; he listed a 279 game and 735 series as his accomplishments. John was using a Storm ball drilled by the Sam's Town ProShop. There are too many people to thanks so here is a Thanks to Everyone who has helped. John also wanted to Thank the ABT bowlers who make bowling the tournaments fun. Plans for the money are bills. John's closing comment was that the ABT is top notch and the biggest reason that he keeps bowling.
